

PLANO MIDDLE SCHOOL SUMMER PERCUSSION CAMP

PLANO SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

June 18-22, 2012

The Plano Middle School Percussion Camp is a total percussion camp that features classes in fundamental techniques, keyboard percussion, orchestral instruments, marching percussion, drumset, and world percussion. All participants perform in every aspect of the camp.

Featuring

Percussion Ensembles
Keyboard Masterclasses
Technique/Counting Workouts
Samba Band
Steel Band

Camp Schedule

The camp sessions will run Monday - Friday 8am - 12pm

Concert

There will be an end-of-the-camp concert featuring all of the camp members.
The concert will be from 11am - 12pm on Friday, June 25.

Location

All programs are presented on the campus of Plano Senior High School in the Doyle Dean Performing Arts Center. PSHS is located at 2200 Independence Parkway, Plano, TX 75075

Eligibility

Participation in the Plano Middle School Percussion Camp is offered to the next year 7th and 8th grade percussionists from Carpenter, Haggard, Hendrick, Schimelpfenig, and Wilson middle schools who are interested in developing their percussion skills and musical interests. Participants will benefit from our program regardless of level of attainment or proficiency.

Student Supervision

Every activity is supervised and attended by a PISD employee and area percussion specialists on contract with the Plano Middle School Percussion Camp.

What to Bring

A detailed letter regarding needs for equipment, music, playing materials, procedures, and other details will be sent to you after application deadline.

Tuition

The tuition for the Plano Middle School Percussion Camp will be $60 with checks made out to Plano Band Boosters.

Who to Contact for Additional Information

Michael A. Hernandez, Plano Percussion Coordinator michael.hernandez@pisd.edu phone 972.345.0598

For more information, please visit: www.planopercussion.org

